

December Butterflies Newsletter

Hello Families!

Happy December! I'm looking forward to another month of growth and learning with our class. I'm excited to see all that December brings.

What are we learning?

Throughout December, we will continue building our understanding of shapes, colors, numbers, and letters. We will also begin our Bread unit, exploring different kinds of bread and engaging in hands-on activities such as manipulating dough and baking bread. As a class, we will continue developing strategies to recognize and manage the big feelings we experience.
